

Curriculum links

Organise career-related learning activities throughout the year using the Primary Futures platform to source volunteers to support your curriculum subjects by making authentic learning links to life outside the classroom.

Maths A volunteer in most job roles can be asked to speak about how they use maths everyday. Architect Builder/ Joiner Accountant	English A volunteer in most job roles can be asked to speak about how they use English everyday. Author Journalist Reporter Publisher Screen writer Communications manager Marketing manager
--	---

Science
Materials Construction Engineer Architect Designer Waste Manager Sustainability Manager Consultant	Plants Florist Garden Designer Horticulturist Environmentalist National Trust / RHS employee	Animals Vet Zoologist Microbiologist Marine Biologist Conservation Manager Medical Professional

Geography
Locational Knowledge Tourism Manager Entertainment & Leisure City Planner Travel Agent	Human & Physical geography Coastal Management City Planner Environmental Advisor Sustainability Manager Architect Engineer Marine Biologist Conservation Manager

Next page

Curriculum links continued

Art / D.T Artist Sculptor Painter Fashion Designer Set Designer Textile Artist Silver smith / metal artist Costume Designer Prop designer Art conservator Illustrator Ceramicist 3D artist Product designer	History Inviting a volunteer from a similar role to the topic you are covering is a great way to make connections and discover similarities and differences between 'then and now'. Archaeologist, museum curator, Great Fire of London/ Gunpowder plot - Building Surveyor, Architect, Civil Engineer, Fire Service, Quantity Surveyor Titanic - Naval architect, Maritime UK employees, engineer, jobs in STEAM Romans - highway maintenance Greeks - politics, government, home office (democracy)
--	---

PSHE

Inviting a diverse range of volunteers to speak to your pupils can help to promote an inclusive environment, and challenge stereotypes that form from an early age.

Health Dietician Chef Dentist Mental health & wellbeing practitioner Personal Trainer	Relationships Human Resources Family Support Worker Social Worker Culture Management Carer
---	--